

Our strategic partner Multipanel Wins The Product Innovation Award

MULTIPANEL

Waterproof Building Panels

Multipanel, a strategic partner of Pacific Urethanes, earlier this year won the product innovation of the year 2019 at the Australian Construction Awards. Multipanel manufactures innovative water proofing solutions for the building industry.

Innovation is core to what we do on a daily basis and to be formally recognised is a great achievement!

Pacific Urethanes with over 100 years of industry and application experience partners with Multipanel to drive manufacturing efficiencies and deliver high performing building materials.

Some 80 % of building defects are water related. Consequently it is imperative that products for water proofing are manufactured and delivered to an exacting specification. Pacific Urethanes technical facility is continuously testing for compliance and accreditation standards requirements.

Multipanel have not experienced any quality defects while using polyurethane systems supplied by Pacific Urethanes. We congratulate Multipanel on winning this significant award.
